DON'T STAY AWAY FROM CHURCH BECAUSE—

YOU ARE POOR—there is no admission charge.

BECAUSE IT RAINS—you go to work in the rain.

BECAUSE IT IS HOT—it's hot at your house too.

BECAUSE IT IS COLD—it is always warm and friendly at church.

BECAUSE NO ONE INVITED YOU—people go to the movies without being begged.

BECAUSE WE HAVE AN EMOTIONAL RELIGION—how about the ball games?

BECAUSE YOU HAVE VERY SMALL CHILDREN—what if you didn't any longer have them?

YOU DON'T LIKE THE PREACHER—remember he's human like you.

YOUR JOB MAKES YOU SO TIRED—you could lose your job.

THERE ARE HYPOCRITES—you associate with them every day. You should be accustomed to them by now.

YOU HAVE COMPANY—they will admire your loyalty if you invite them along, or tell them to wait until you get back.

YOUR CLOTHES ARE NOT GOOD ENOUGH—we do not conduct a fashion show.

OUR CHURCH STANDARD IS TOO HIGH—just take a look at the Bible standard if you think ours is high.

YOU HAVE PLENTY OF TIME YET—ARE YOU SURE?

People go on vacations to forget things. When they get there and open their luggage, they find out they have indeed.

Dumb Teachers!

Little Betty was about to be promoted to the Primary Department from the nursery school—and she wasn't a bit happy about it. Her teacher tried to tell her how nice it would be; but Betty, who did not want to give up her teacher, responded, "I wish you knew enough to be my teacher in the Primary Department!"

In Days Gone By

On July 15, 1520, Martin Luther made his final break with Rome. The Scripture that did it was Romans 1:17b, "The just shall live by faith."

On July 16, 1945, the first atomic bomb was tested.

On July 17, 1674, Isaac Watts was born. He wrote many great hymns.

POEMS

by Sharon

"WHAT JESUS MEANS TO ME"

Jesus Christ means more to me
 Than anyone I know;
 He's with me every night and day,
 Wherever I may go.

I never have to fear a thing,
 Because I know He's there;
 He keeps me from all fright and harm,
 From fear and despair.

If sometimes I am feeling low
 And from His path I stray;
 He makes me know how wrong I am
 So I'll stay in His way.

He is my God, my Guiding Light,
 Through this old world below;
 Until this life is o're at last,
 And to my home I'll go.

Up there on High, I'll know sweet peace,
 My Lord will comfort my soul;
 I'll have no worries, no troubles or trials,
 When I have reached my goal.

THE PROVERBS.

Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go.
 Proverbs 22:24

Old Age

"Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth." —Ps. 71:9.

An old Chinese Grandpa, too feeble to work, was considered by the family an unwanted burden—just another mouth to consume the meager supply of rice. Therefore, the father of the home decided to put the old man on a wheelbarrow and take him up to the mountains to die.

The little eight-year-old grandson went along, full of curiosity and questions. The father explained that the grandfather was old and helpless, and that there was nothing-else to be done with him. Then the little chap had a happy thought: "I'm glad I came along, Daddy," said the youngster, "because when you get old, I'll know where to take you!"

The daddy stopped dead in his tracks, thought better of the whole situation, and brought the old gentleman back home.

ALWAYS RIGHT - An elderly man visited a doctor for a thorough examination. Upon finishing the physical exam, the doctor said to him,
 "You're as fit as a fiddle." You'll live to be ninety years old." "But, replied the man, "I am ninety years old!" "See," said the doctor, "what did I tell you?!"

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN

Some people think if they are not great sinners, they have a better chance of getting to heaven than a wicked person. But this is not so. Let me illustrate. You and I go to a ball game, where the admission price is six dollars.
 You have two dollars and I have only one dollar. Which one of us stands the better chance of gaining admission?
 You know the answer. Neither one of us can get in. This is also true about getting into the kingdom of God. The moral man may have many more good works in his favor than the wicked man, but since the price of admission is the New Birth, he cannot get any closer to heaven than the worst man on earth.

RULES FOR DAILY LIFE

Begin the day with God,
 Kneel down to Him in prayer;
 Lift up thy heart to His abode,
 And seek His love to share.

Open the Book of God
 And read a portion there,
 That it may hallow all thy thoughts
 And sweeten all thy care.

Go through the day with God,
 Whatever thy work may be;
 Where ever thou art—
 At home, abroad,
 He still is near to thee.

Conclude the day with God,
 Thy sins to Him confess,
 Trust in His cleansing blood,
 And plead His righteousness.

Lie down at night with God,
 Who gives His servants sleep;
 And when thou treadest
 The vale of death,
 He will thee guard, and keep.

Some of us will never know where all the money we spend for groceries goes until we stand side-ways and look in the mirror!

A new attorney, representing his first client, was suing a man for killing 24 hogs. Trying to make an impression, he said to the jury: "Twenty-four hogs, gentlemen, twenty-four—twice the number that's here in the jury box."

FETICIDE IS MURDER

 DID YOU KNOW that there are eight different categories concerning homicide? The word "homicide" means "The killing of one human being by another."

I want to list these eight categories, but the one I'm calling particular attention to will be the last one. Consider carefully now the OCTAGON of HOMICIDE:

Patricide - The act of killing your father

Matricide - The act of killing your mother

Fratricide - The act of killing your brother or sister.

Infanticide - The act of killing your infant

Genocide - The act of mass murdering a race of people or minority group

Suicide - The act of killing yourself

Senicide - The act of killing elderly people

Feticide - The act of killing your unborn baby

The last one, "feticide," is the only homicide that has been legalized in America. The Devil's crowd years ago came up with a medical term for this killing of unborn babies called, "ABORTION." Those who advocate this type of murder call it "terminating a pregnancy" and disguise this killing by giving it a nice sounding name that appeals to the selfish and irresponsible, "Pro-Choice."

If a woman insists that she has a right to do with her body what she wants, she is right to a certain point. If she wants to kill herself, then she can do it. But, when she wants to kill that little baby in her womb she is killing another human being and it has nothing to do with her body. It is homicide, no matter what the legislators or Supreme Court judges say.

The Supreme Court is not the highest authority. God is the FINAL authority. It is before Him that all mankind shall stand someday. Human reasoning, convenience and other excuses will not count at the judgment!

The Sixth Commandment still says "Thou shalt not kill." In America we kill 1½ million, innocent, precious unborn babies each year because the Supreme Court said that it was alright to do it. How can those mothers, doctors and legislators sleep at night? FETICIDE IS MURDER!
